

Starting September 12
Three New Tuesday Morning Bible Studies for Women

Ladies,

Fall is just around the corner and it's time to start thinking about Bible Study. Girlfriends in God will be kicking off a new year of Bible study with a brunch on Tuesday, September 12. We will meet at 9:15 in room 207 for a time of fellowship and to check out the studies being offered. If you are able, bring a dish to share along with a beverage for yourself. Childcare will be provided.

The fall studies are...

The Promised One by Nancy Guthrie

The Promised One provides a fresh look at the book of Genesis, leading readers in discovering how its stories, symbols, people, and promises point to Christ. Over ten weeks of study, participants will see Christ as the agent of creation, the offspring who will crush the head of the serpent, the ark of salvation, the source of the righteousness credited to Abraham, the substitutionary sacrifice provided by God, the Savior to whom the whole world must come for life, and much more. Each weekly lesson includes questions for personal study, a contemporary teaching chapter that emphasizes how the passage fits into the bigger story of redemptive history, and a brief section on how the passage uniquely points to what is yet to come at the consummation of Christ's kingdom. Women of Faith Study Guide "Encouraging One Another" by Nicole Johnson

A wonderful 12 week study specifically for women. This Women of Faith Study by Nicole Johnson addresses the reality of everyday life, the ups and downs. "Did you know God planned ahead for all of your gloomy days? He knows just when you'll need a little lift, and has arranged for encouragement to be right there, waiting for you to discover it. You only need to know where to look."¹ Biblically based, this interactive study will help you discover encouragement, and spirit-lifting blessings from God's own hand.
